

Rhetoric Sample Lesson Plan for Week 2 of Year 1 Redesigned

On the following pages, you will find one set of sample lesson plans for Week 2. If you have a copy of Year 1 Redesigned, we recommend that you print out this lesson plans and compare it with the Reading Assignment Chart (page 4) and the Weekly Overview Charts (pages 6-7). If you don't own Year 1 yet, you can access these week-plan pages through the Go To Egypt CD or webpage and either print them out or look at them digitally.

For Week 2, we have taken the weekly assignments from Tapestry week-plan pages 4, 6, and 7 and broken them down into daily assignments. This is to show you how you might distribute assignments in a given week. Please note carefully the following:

- » Each family is different! You can always pick and choose, and tailor each week-plan to your family's individual needs.
- » We have only planned Tapestry subjects. You would need to add Math, Science, Logic, and Foreign Language lessons to your week, if desired.
- » We have listed all possible disciplines, but your family may not want to do many of them. Tapestry plans are educational buffets from which one fills a plate each week. NO ONE FAMILY DOES ALL THE POSSIBLE ACTIVITIES LISTED in our plans.

Layout

The sample lesson plans are written for you, the teacher, to read. We have left blank any squares where there is no Tapestry work given. Work that students can do independently is shown in black ink. Work that requires your direct supervision or participation is shown in dark blue ink. Well trained and diligent Rhetoric students are fluent readers, and can do many hands-on activities independently. Teacher involvement mainly consists of helping the student plan his weekly schedule, providing appropriate resources and accountability, and holding a few periodic classes each week. As with all learning levels, weekly instruction in Writing and correction of papers is also an essential role for you with Tapestry studies.

Pacing

Tapestry plans are written such that a family with high school students can complete all of world history, geography, literature, church history, fine arts, etc. in one four-year rotation. Because Rhetoric students are preparing to enter college, we do not recommend a half-pace approach for this learning level, so there is only a set of "regular pace" lesson plans. However, please note that Rhetoric Literature plans provide, on the Loom disc, charts that guide you in paring down Literature assignments for students who do not wish to have a full credit in Literature, but plan to combine Literature with Composition in one English Credit. (For more information on credits, see the Loom as well.) If, for the sake of younger students or because of disabilities you wish to slow the pace, it is easy to do. Compare these lesson plans with the half-pace ones for Upper Grammar students, and you'll quickly see how easily it's done.

Please note that we suggest that you plan to go at the pace of your oldest student. Therefore, if you have a Rhetoric student that needs to earn a credit, he will need to go at regular pace, so we suggest that your younger students also proceed at regular pace. This will keep the whole family studying together, which is a major benefit of Tapestry of Grace.
